The world's oldest preserved paddle steamer

The 155-year-old paddle steamer «Skibladner» is the pride of Norway's inland, and one of Norway's best-known tourist attractions. She continues to run a timetable service in the summer months.

WHY? A unique vessel in beautiful surroundings, with excellent food and an exciting history. Something for everyone! Fully licensed restaurant on board.

WHERE? Lake Mjøsa, 1–2 hours north of Oslo by train or car.

WHEN? Late June to mid-August. Sailings daily, except Mondays.

HOW MUCH?: Tickets from NOK 180 for adults; children (up to 12 years) travel free.

A voyage on this unique vessel is an experience not to be missed! Skibladner sails between the villages and towns around Lake Mjøsa as she has always done: idyllic

OSLO

Just 38 minutes from Oslo!

With Norwegian State Railways' InterCity trains it takes just 38 minutes to get from Oslo Central Station to our southernmost port, Eidsvoll. From Oslo Airport it takes only 12 minutes.

Skibladner sails from Eidsvoll 3 days a week, and we also have departures from the towns of Hamar, Gjøvik, Lillehammer and Moelv. All of them have stations and car parking.

You can find more travel information on our website www.skibladner.no. Here are some examples.
